The term “gross receipts”, when used to denote receipts from the sale of alcoholic beverages, shall mean and include the total receipts from the sale of any drink mixture containing an alcoholic beverage or beverages.

This report must be filed with the Revenue Department on or before the 20th of each month for the preceding month’s sales. Delay in filing report subjects licensee to penalty provided by ordinance.

The report above, is a due and correct report and correctly shows the total gross sales of all liquor sold by such licensee during the preceding month.
